NEWARK SAILOR TOPS LIST AT EASTERN SCHOOL

WILBERT PINE, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Pine of Newark, after having finished a three months' course at Manhattan Beach, Brooklyn, has been transferred back to the west coast where he is quartered as a member of Captain of the Port Battalion, San Francisco, with a promotion from seaman first class to boatswain mate, third class.

Wilbert made an enviable record as a student at Manhattan Beach. In a final examination in mathematics, which is the foundation of navigation, he was the only student in a class of 580 from all sections of the United States to hand in a perfect paper. His work at the station was so satisfactory that he was asked to remain as an instructor, but presumably the salubrious California climate and a desire to be nearer his relatives and friends took him back to his native state.

While stationed in the East, Wilbert took time off from his studies to visit the surrounding states, and such places of interest as Smithsonian Institute, Lincoln a nd Washington Monuments, the White House, and the Capitol drew his particular atttntion. He visited his parents and friends in Newark last Friday.

"It Takes Both"

It takes both . . . two fingers to give the Victory sign. It takes both . . . War Bonds and Taxes to make that Victory come true. Continue your purchase of War Bonds, at least ten percent of your income. Pay your Victory Tax and your income tax cheerfully and gladly. Both are in lieu of an Occupation Tax to Hitler. *U. S. NILES POSTOFFICE SHOWS BIG GAIN IN MONEY ORDERS

Although sugar registration totals gave Washington Township a slight decrease in population last May, as compared to the 1940 census, a good deal more money is in circulation locally than last year, as shown by long line-ups, particularly on Saturday mornings at the Central Bank in Niles, as well as by a surprising increase of nearly 70 percent in the money order business done at the Niles Postoffice during 1942.

Domestic money orders issued at the Niles Postoffice for the year 1941 totaled $82,906,78, alcording to figures provided this newspaper by Postmaster Edward Enos. In 1942 this figure jumped to the surprising total of $143,579.06, or an increase of $60,672.28 last year over the year before.

General business at the Niles Postoffice increased $1,087.39 in 1942 as compared to 1941.

Following is the tabulation according to quarters for the past two years:

War Stamp Sales Over Half Billion Dollars, Album Drive Opens

U. S. Treasury photo

Appealing Margaret C. Russell of the War Savings Staff tacks up this new Treasury poster which will be seen from coast to coast. It pictures retailers' slogan, "SAY YES." A drive is underway for Americans to buy additional War Stamps to fill albums and convert them into War Bonds.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The nation's retailers from the tiniest hamlets to the mighty cities are acting as a spearhead in a great Treasury Department campaign to sell the additional War Savings Stamps needed to fill more than 100,000,000 albums now in the hands of the American people.

According to a report released by the Treasury Department today, sales of War Savings Stamps totaled $559,777,000 for the period from May 1, 1941, through November, 1942.

Stamp sales have risen from less than three million dollars per month when they were first introduced to the public to an average of more than fifty million dollars per month at the present time.

The Treasury's slogan, "A half-filled album is like a half-equipped soldier," has been adopted officially by retailers for the campaign.

The importance of the drive is seen in the fact that a War Bond potential of nearly two billion dollars hangs in the balance.

Every War Stamp album, converted into a People's Bond, for which the purchaser pays $18.75 and which matures to $25.00 value when held for 10 years, adds its force to the war effort.

The Treasury Department is counting upon the country's school children to play a powerful role in the success of the SAY YES drive. The volume of stamp and bond sales is at the rate of $200,000,000 for the current school year.

MAGAZINES WANTED!

The Niles Rotary Club is sponsoring a Victory Book and magazine campaign for service men until March 15, President Burdick advises this newspaper.

Books of fiction and recent magazines in particular are wanted and donors may leave them at the P. C. Hansen Lumber Company office in Niles where they are picked up regularly and are forwarded to the proper authorities.

Magazines containing complete stories are cut apart and the stories are bound in folders to save space on boats going overseas.

Giving your late magazines, or books on standard subjects is one way local citizens can do their bit to help relieve the tedium of men on shipboard.

SELECTEES REQUIRED TO CARRY TWO CARDS

(Special to the Register)

The Bureau of Selective Service of the War Manpower Commission has announced new and stringent regulations governing men in the 18 to 45 age group who for six months or more have been subject to registration for military service. Beginning February 1, men in the foregoing groups will be required to carry on their person their classification cards, Form 57, and their registration certificate, Form 2. Failure of registrants to comply with the new regulations will subject them to severe penalties, a fine or imprisonment, or both, the Commission announced. Men who were in the 45 to 65-year ld age group at the time of registration remain unaffected by the order.

PEARL HARBOR SCRAP

Gondola carloads of battleship and other scrap, created by the Japanese on December 7, 1941 at Pearl Harbor have been passing through Niles en route to the Pacific States Steel plant recently to be made into new steel to be "returned" to the Japs, with Uncle Sam's compliments. A national magazine carried a story several months ago about the ship scrap still being salvaged at Pearl Harbor. Dummy bombs and parts of ships are to be seen in the carloads passing through Niles.

NILES AUDIENCE ENJOYS PAIR OF TALKS ON CRIME

SPEAKER FROM D. A.'s OFFICE PRESENTS CHARGE TO PARENTS

"The dirstict attorney and the juvenile court cannot be father and mother to your children: We get hold of your children after they get into trouble; only you, the parents, can control your children before they get into trouble.

"The parents of a 17 year old shopyard worker making $65 and more per week who do not put away at least half of it for their boy's future education or business use must expect their boy to throw his easy money away.

"I am in a position to advise parents how to raise children because I am a bachelor." These were some of the verbal gems hurled at 125 eager listeners Tuesday evening by Leonard J. Meltzer, assistant district attorney of Alameda County at the Current Affairs class held in the Niles Grammar school auditorium.

In probably the wittiest address heard in two years of public forums under the guidance of Vice Principal Jack Rees of Centerville, Mr. Meltzer went on to say the authorities were horrified at the nonchalance and disregard for consequence with which juvenile boys 17 years of age or less, deliberately commit murder, where a seasoned criminal does everything he can to avoid shooting until he, the criminal, is cornered.

— No Questions Asked

The audience was too nonplussed by the speaker's direct challenge to parenthood to be able to ask any questions. The responsibility for the conduct of young people is up to the parents who bring them into life, rather than the peace officers who can only take over the responsibility for the boy or girl after he or she gets into trouble, he insisted.

Special Agent R. A. Lapachet of the San Francisco office of the F.B.I. spoke first on the enormous growth of his organization, both before and after Pearl Harbor. He was happy to say no real sabotage had been committed in the United States, and the picking up of the eight submarine-landed nazis last year was a stroke of good fortune.

His bureau now has 60 million fingerprints catalogued and filed, and these come in at the rate of 100,000 daily. The bureau now employs nine times the number of operatives it had two years ago, and has an army of 13,000 office workers. "Be vigilant, not vigilantes" he said. In other words, report anything unusual to your nearest F.B.I. office and let the bureau do the investigating. If one tip in a hundred leads to something useful, the other 99 useless reports are held to be worthwhile.

— Crime is Costly

Crime, according to Mr. Meltzer, costs Americans 13 billion dollars a year where education only costs them three billions. Each new jail we build is a monument to neglect —neglect of juvenile control, guidance and management, he said.

Americans don't get stirred up until their pocketbooks are touched: when car stealing in Chicago a decade ago boosted theft insurance rates from a normal 75c per $100 of valuation to $9.18 per $100 the average citizen got mad and did something about it, he concluded.

Mr. Rees introduced both speakers. The audience enjoyed the evening greatly, and will come back in numbers next Tuesday evening to enjoy the RAF raid picture. These classes are free.

RECRUITS WANTED FOR DUTY WITH THE STATE GUARD

YOUNG MEN REJECTED BY THE ARMY ARE USUALLY ELIGIBLE

Men are wanted for military service in the California State Guard!

Such was the announcement made here today by Lieut. Colonel Alfred C. Liebler, commanding the 9th Regiment, California State Guard, stationed at Oakland, and in connection with the weeklong intensive recruiting campaign he is now conducting in this area.

"We are particularly looking for young men between the ages of 18 and 19 who come under the new Selective Service regulations but who have sufficient time before induction to get a basic military training and do guard duty in the East Bay Area," Col. Liebler said.

Under California laws men between the ages of 18 and 64 are eligible to join the California State Guard provided they are American citizens, not subject to immediate call under Selective Service, capable of passing a reasonable physical examination, and without criminal records or association with subversive elements.

"There is a splendid opportunity for men past the draft age or who have failed to pass the more rigid physical tests of the Federal armed forces, "Col. Liebled said, adding that "there are probably thousands of such men wanting to do such a duty and not knowing of the California State Guard.

The recruiting drive while aimed at securing men for active duty and under tables of pay commensurate with that of the Army, is likewise open to men who desire limited services a s Reservists which obligates them only to regular weekly drill periods and to active duty only under a state of emergency.

Recruiting offices have opened in Oakland and located at the State Guard Armory, 918 Fallon St., in charge of Captain Newton G. Zobel, Recruiting Officers.

Young men who have been inducted and who have been discharged for minor physical defects are entirely eligible for duty with the State Guard, either as reserve or on full duty.

Recruits may apply for information and enlistment to Captain Zobel at the following nearby places on the dates noted:

City Hall, San Leandro, Monday and Tuesday, January 25 and 26. City Hall, Hayward, Wednesday and Thursday, January 27 and 28.

In San Jose a Recruiting Headquarters will be opened at 29 West Santa Clara all next week from Monday, January 25 through Saturday the 30th.

Bonus meats in the menu

There's no need of too much worry about making your meat allowance stretch when there are all those delicious bonus meats that can be had (at least at this writing). I speak of sundry meats such as liver, heart, kidney, pigs' feet and all those extras that don't come in on the meat quota.

As far as nutritional value goes, they have everything that other meats have, and in most cases, more too. Liver, heart, and kidney are right on top of the list when it comes to contributing iron to the diet. They're vitamin foods, too, for they contain vitamins A, B, C, and some D.

If you've built up a psychological resistance toward them, it is most likely because you've probably never tried them. But if you like chicken giblets, then you're bound to like these bonus meats.

MOCK GIBLET NOODLES — Saute small pieces of liver or kidney or precooked heart in hot shortening. Make a sauce out of the pan drippings or use mushroom sauce and add meat and sauce to hot noodles. Don't pass judgment on sundries until you've tried this dish.

SPANISH KIDNEY—Remove white centers and tubes of kidneys, slice into thin slices, brown quickly in hot shortening along with chopped onion. Cover with tomato sauce or canned tomatoes and steam for about 15 minutes. Serve with rice or spaghetti.

BAKED LIVER CASSEROLE — Place liver slices in a greased casserole, top with sliced, tart apples and sliced onion, season to taste. Add bacon drippings or other meat drippings if you have them, and bake in moderate oven (350°F.) for about 1½ hours or until liver is tender. Remove cover during the last 10 minutes.

BAKED HEART—Wash heart, remove arteries and veins. Simmer slowly in water until tender, adding 1 tsp. salt for each quart of water when half done. Allow about 2 hours for calf, lamb, and pork hearts and about 3 to 3½ hours for beef hearts. Stuff precooked heart with your favorite dressing, and bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) for about 30 minutes or until hearts are well browned.

LIVER BURGERS—Grind uncooked liver, using the coarse knife of the grinder, add about ⅓ as much bread crumbs, chopped onions and seasonings to taste. Add enough beaten egg or evaporated milk to bind mixture, shape into patties and fry quickly. Grand with whole kernel corn.

P. G. & E. SHOWS REMARKABLE NON-ACCIDENT RECORD

(Special to the Register)

Out of approximately 12,000 employees of Pacific Gas and Electric Company, only one lost his life through accident in 1942, the Central Saftey Committe of the utility company reported today.

The electrical department made a clean score for the year without a single fatality charged against it, something that has not happened since 1932. The one death of the year was suffered by an employee of the gas department who slipped while painting a steep roof and fell to the ground. Investigation showed that he had failed to make use of a safety line provided for the purpose.

During 1942, a 25 percent reduction in the number of most serious accidents was recorded and a drop of 75 per cent in man days lost because of accidental injuries accomplished a saving of 251,560 man hours over previous annual time losses.

Through its Central Safety Committee, the company's safety engineers for years have carried on a continuous accident prevention educational campaign among its employees. The movement has assumed added importance in recent months because of the wartime necessity to conserve manpower in all essential industries.

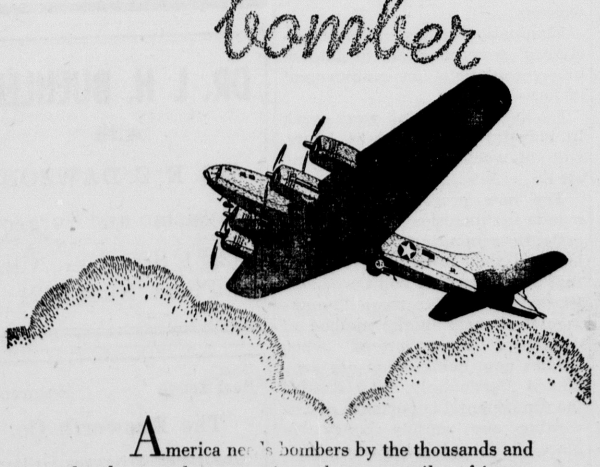
TWO MILES OF COPPER WIRE FOR ~~TELEPHONE LINES~~ this bomber



America needs bombers by the thousands and bombers need copper wire—about two miles of it to a plane. All critical materials like copper must go for war weapons—they are no longer available for new telephone equipment—bombers and tanks and ships and guns and shells come first.

And war calls come first on the telephone lines! Just to build one bomber takes about 12,000 telephone calls. Building thousands of planes, hundreds of ships . . . moving men and supplies . . . causes a flood of calls on the existing telephone lines that is the greatest in history.

To keep the lines open for war calls, we need your help. To war-busy centers, please make only calls that are essential.

Your understanding and your assistance are deeply appreciated.

LIGHT AS A WAR WORKER!

Adequate light and normal eyesight are essential tools in war production work today.

When war came, it brought a challenge to the lamp makers. With industries operating on a 24-hour daily schedule, lamp production had to be stepped up. And this had to be done without draining metals, materials and manpower needed elsewhere.

The lamp makers promptly went into war economies. They substituted ingenuity for scarcity.

And they have met completely and competently the production challenge of increased output presented by the war industries' demands.

As a result of these steps, light is not their only contribution to America's cause. Tons of vital metals were conserved. Solder, which is 50% tin, is now made of lead and silver. Lamp parts previously made of solid copper, nickel and brass, are now made of iron and steel, plated with copper, brass or nickel.

This is a story not only of industrial achievement but of earnest, carefully-planned patriotic cooperation in the war effort.

Farm WAR NEWS

From the Alameda County USDA War Board

No Farmer should let lack of adequate financing prevent his farm from achieving maximum production of war-needed foods and fibers, according to Chairman Herbert W. Young of the Alameda County USDA War Board, who points out that private lending organizations and government agencies have expanded their credit facilities to meet any farm credit need.

Farmers who can offer reasonable security can obtain credit for expanding production through Production Credit Associations, operating under the Far Credit Administration. Farmers who lack the required security for other loans, but whose family labor and land could be put to fuller use in the war program if funds were available, can obtain this assistance from the Farm Security Administration. Credit is also available to farmers cooperative organizations for financing processing, distribution, or other handling of farm products.

Farmers who have credit problems are urged to get in touch with the War Board who will refer them to the agency best equiped to handle each individuals problem.

TIRE INSPECTION POSTPONED

The final date for the first inspection of tires on commercial vehicles, including farm trucks, has been postponed until February 28. Farmers who have not had their tires inspected, however, are urged to do so at once to avoid being caught in a last-minute rush.

Washington Township official tire inspection stations are listed on the back page of this issue by means of advertising paid for by the dealers themselves. Give them your business when you need tires or repairs.

MORE FLAX IN STATE

Indications are that California growers will produce the largest acreage of flaxseed in the state's history in 1943. The California Cooperative Crop Reporting Service estimates that acreage of this war-important crop this year will be around 300,000 acres, compared with 207,000 acres in 1942 and 213,000 acres in 1941. Weather has been favorable in all parts of the state for the planting of flaxseed, and though seeding has been somewhat retarded due to lack of machinery and labor, growers generally are now through seeding.

Flaxseed is an important source of oil which has many wartime uses, particularly in paint which is used in huge quantities for ships and other military and naval equipment. Flaxseed is an ideal crop to substitute for wheat and other less important crops.

STAMP PLAN TERMINATED

The federal food stamp plan for distribution of food to underprivileged families will be suspended on March 1, the Food Distribution Administration announces. Instituted during a period of large agricultural surpluses to help defeat the paradox of want in the midst of plenty, the food stamp plan has benefited between 20,000,000 and 25,00,000 needy persons, it is estimated. The government will continue through other means to make some food available to needy unemployable persons, aged and physically handicapped persons, and also will continue providing food for school lunches and child day care centers,

SMALL FARMS IMPORTANT

Department of Agriculture studies show that there are approximately 2,500,000 farmers who are not producing to the full capacity of their labor resources, usually because of lack of sufficient land, capital or equipment.

The department suggests three ways in which underemployed farmers can be brought into full production;

1. Credit or other assistance to the small farmer who can add to the production on his own farm.

2. Moving to another larger or better farm in the same area.

3. Relocation from one farming area to another offering better land and opportunities.

BITS AND PIECES: A revision of the method of determining an "essential" farm worker for draft deferment purposes is expected soon . . . The national number of cattle on feed for slaughter January 1 was the largest on record, but 11 percent lower than last year in western states . . . Commodity Credit Corporation will sell soft white wheat to millers at parity prices to enable them to operate under flour price ceilings . . . The feed wheat program will continue in 1943 substantially the same as in 1942.

LETTER BOX

January 12, 1943

Dear Editor:

Of particular interest to residents of the territory served by your paper is a Bill to be introduced in the Assembly providing for distribution of the money accruing to State and County Fairs from Pari-Mutuel betting during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1942.

Present law provides that only Counties and Districts holding Fairs during 1942 would be eligible to participate, which of course would forbid the Alameda County Fair from receiving money from this fund, which totals $581,504. In fact only ten fairs would divide the money.

The new Bill would divide this fund on the basis of the 1941 allocation allowing 63 fairs to participate, Under this plan Alameda County Fair will receive $5,121. Needless to say, I am supporting this proposition.

There are at this writing no other Bills particularly affecting the 13th Assembly District.

This session of the Legislature appears to be quite harmonious. There is a general sentiment in favor of increasing Old-age Pensions, reducing Sales Taxes, particularly on the common necessities of life.

FARM CENTER HEARS SPEAKERS ON LABOR; APRICOT PRICES IN '43

CENTERVILLE—Walter Gamman, manager of the Hayward office of the U. S. Employment Service spoke on Labor Plans for 1943 before the regular monthly meeting of the Eden-Washington Farm Center held in the high school here on Tuesday evening, according to Secretary Joe Shinn Jr.

YOUR VICTORY GARDEN

(Special to the Register)

By W. J. Cecil State Director of Agriculture

Each Victory Garden should be carefully located.

Trees and buildings which would prevent the garden from being well lighted most of the day should be avoided.

Vebetables need an abundance of sunlight for their best development. This is particularly true of the winter garden when days are short and sunlight is at a premium.

A garden must have an abundance of water. It can be applied by means of irrigation ditches or by overhead sprinklers. Where a sprinkling system is used, water can be conserved by cultivating the surface soil lightly as soon as it has dried sufficiently to permit working easily.

A garden can be over-watered. A good general rule to follow is to keep the soil moist enough to be noticeably damp but not so that mud balls can be made by pressing the dirt in the palm of the hand.

A sandy soil will absorb more water than a heavy clay soil and does not require the care which is necessary to use with heavier soils.

On the other hand, a light soil must be watered more frequently than a heavy soil.

A Victory Garden is not a matter of planting seeds and then waiting patiently for mature vegetables. Between the time of planting and harvesting, the garden requires much care if it is to produce the best of crops.

The main feature is keeping out weeds. There is no substitute for hoeing and hand work in keeping the garden free of weeds.

Make a compost (fertilizer) pile by stacking the weeds you pull up in a disused corner of your garden. Cover it with damp dirt to aid decomposition, and add weeds as you pull them up, then more dirt.

The resultant mess makes fine fertilizer and can be spaded back into the land between the rows or onto now plots before planting your next rotating crops.

A change in the schedule of State Income Tax assessments is also proposed. The members appear generally conscious of the need for Post War Planning. Some of us are concerned on the problem of the small business man, particularly those now being forced to close who expect to reopen after the war.

Over all is the question of Agriculture, the need for higher production this year and the problem of Farm Labor in connection therewith.

With personal best wishes,

Francis Dunn Jr.
Assemblyman, 13th District

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR
Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

American agriculture has taken the initiative in submitting to Congress a practical, well-defined program for improving production on the home front and eliminating practices which have not only caused many of the food shortages, but which have also played havoc with the Nation's entire economy.

Four of the country's dominant farm organizations—the American Farm Bureau Federation, the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives, the National Grange and the National Co-operative Milk Producers Federation — have joined in drafting the proposed program, which includes new parity price bases, a longer work-week in industry, "fair prices" instead of subsidies, and recognition of agriculture as a war-time industry.

Dealing bluntly with conditions as they are, Edward A. O'Neal, president of the Farm Bureau; Charles C. Teague, president of the Council of Farmer Cooperatives; Albert S. Goss, the Grange master, and John Bradt, head of the milk federation, reported that "Most price ceilings have discouraged production", and warned:

"This promotion of scarcity, in addition to threatening the Nation's food supply releases inflationary forces of the most vicious character.

"America will be faced with acute food and fiber shortages and possibly with actual hunger unless changes are made in the present ceilings, and manpower conditions improved."

Pledging their "willingness to cooperate with the Government in carrying out sound plans to prevent inflation", and to keep the wheels of production turning at full speed, the four national farm leaders outlined other steps in the corrective program which they propose as follows:

1.—Elimination of slow-downs and racketeering practices being imposed by labor leaders.

2.—Adequate machinery and equipment for farmers to increase farm efficiency and make possible tht greatest possible production.

3.—Importation of Mexican and West Indian labor under practical procurement and distribution conditions.

4.—Elimination of all impractical restrictions on the placement of domestic farm labor.

5.—Full utilization and organization of voluntary and school labor.

6.—Adoption of practical regulations under the Tydings amendment of the Selective Service Act to assure deferment of all essential — including seasonal — farm workers.

Elimination of any attempts, including governmental, to impose union conditions on employment of farm labor.

8.—Extension of the work-week in industry to at least 54 hours, with all overtime pay rates eliminated.

The new program retains demands for inclusion of farm labor costs in computing parity prices and the four farm leaders stated that they may seek additional legislation calling for more "fundamental changes in the method of computing parity prices" when studies now being made are concluded. Particularly, they stressed the fundamental importance of discarding any subsidy policy "in place of a fair price in the market".

To working farmers, who have tried desperately but unsuccessfully to operate under conditions as they now exist, that program has the ring of practicality — and it is to be hoped that Congress will implement it and put it into action. It is little short of criminal to permit conditions to continue which force farmers to slaughter their dairy herds when there is a critical shortage of dairy products, which permit crops to rot on the ground for lack of workers, and which cripple and discourage production at a time when every influence should be brought to bear to encourage and increase farm output. And it is a stupid carry-over from the days when America was asleep at the switch to continue with a 40-hour-week in vital war industries, with the Nation's tax resources being drained to pay for work on an overtime basis which should rightly be done at straight wages.

Our officials in Washington repeatedly ignored tht warnings and suggestions of farm leaders a year ago which could have averted much of the chaos that has resulted since. It is to be hoped that the new Congress will not repeat that error.

MARCH OF DIMES BEGAN MONDAY IN THIS AREA

OAKLAND — Appointment of James H. Quinn member of the state board of Equalization and former Oakland city councilman as Alameda county chairman of the annual March of Dimes drive was announced today by Dan Marovich, Northern California Director for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Headquarters have been established in the Hotel Leamington in Room 341. A corps of volunteer workers will begin canvassing industries, banks and business houses of the county. Marovich said.

The Alameda county chapter of the National Foundation receives one hilf of all funds collected, and a fund is established for the benefit of needy sufferers from infantile paralysis. The county chapter furnishes hospitalization, braces, wheel chairs, needed medicines and medical service.

The National Foundation uses its half of the fund for research and to combat epidemics of the disease which may break out in any part of the United States. Funds are given to universities and research organizations which are still seeking the cause and cure of the disease which still baffles medical science. If any epidemic occurs any place, the National Foundation sends its doctors and nurses who are trained in fighting epidemics. Is may even send iron lungs and special equipment wherever there is a shortage of such appliances.

Dr. B. W. Black is medical director for the local chapter and Fred C. Wells is treasurer.

In Washington Township J. V. Goold, principal of Washington High, and Edward E. Enos, Niles Postmaster, have been appointed co-chairmen of the drive this year.

Enos announces the following appointments: Niles, E. Dixon Bristow, Mrs. Rose Vieux Dr. T. C. Wilson, Manuel Swartz, Mrs. Fred H. Duffie;

Decoto: Louis W. Musick and Miss Mary Janeiro; Mission San Jose: Mrs. Lois Justus and E. B. Hodges, Warm Springs: Joseph Brown and L. H Maffey.

The sale of buttons began Monday and the familiar Wishing Wells may be found in Township schools, restaurants and stores. Just drop in a dime, pin a button on your coat, and make a wish!

CURRENT AFFAIRS CLASSES TO VIEW FEATURE WAR FILM

CENTERVILLE — "Target for Tonight" — a sixty minute photographic record of an actual air raid by the Bomber Command of the Royal Air Force will be the feature of next week's Current Affairs Classes in Centerville and Niles according to Jack Rees, Class Instructor.

This film has been showing currently in the metropolitan news theatres and is one of the best films of the war yet released.

The Centerville class meets Monday evening, January 25, in the High School Visual Education Room and the Niles class meets Tuesday evening, January 26, in the Niles Grammar School Auditorium. Both classes begin promptly at 8 p.m.

Each of next weeks classes will also hear a short talk on the "British War Effort."

Township residents are cordially invited to attend these timely and interesting meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. C E. Kitchell of Hayward were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Ralph Bangle on Monday evening.

Miss Darlene Bolyard of 2425 Thornton Ave. who for the past six months was employed with the Westvaco Chlorine Comany has resigned her position and enrolled in a business course at Healds Business School in San Jose.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Castell Blanch and family of San Francisco visited on Sunday at the home of his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Guerrero on Thornton avenue. Young Robert Blanch was inducted into the United States Army on Monday.

A bewildered youngster was wrestling desperately with examination questions. Finally he came to: "State the amount of oil exported from the United States in any one year."

With a sudden inspiration, he wrote: "In 1492 — none."

Forty years ago the first known cross-continent automobile trip was made from San Francisco to New York in 52 days.

TIME IS SHORT TO APPLY FOR 1943 LICENSES

Gordon H. Garland, newly appointed Director of Motor Vehicles, today reminded California motorists the deadline for 1943 license renewals is only two weeks away and urged them to file applications for the plate tabs now to avoid last minute crowds.

Garland estimated that at least 1,500,000 vehicle owners must file applications between now and midnight of February 4th to avoid the penalties imposed by aw.

"The jam will be the worst in history during the last few days of their renewal season unless the vehicle owners act promptly," Director Garland said. "We have at least seventy five branch offices open throughout the state with plenty of help ready to wait on the public. Now is the time to act."

Persons unable to visit a branch office may mail applications to branch offices at San Francisco and Oakland. The 1943 registration card is required together with the fee as shown on the lower left hand corner of the card. Postal and bank money orders or cashiers checks should be used in making mail remittances.

Changes of address should be written in plainly on the registration card before it is presented or mailed as the license tabs and new certificate will be mailed to the address shown thereon.

RUSTLERS STEAL LIVERMORE CATTLE

LIVERMORE — Believed to be the result of a meat shortage, cattle rustlers started operating in this section last week according to reports from the sheriff's office.

According to Robert Christiansen, a cowboy in the employ of Manuel Vierra of Tracy, who has been ranging his cattle on the Johnson place in the Telsa section, discovered the heads, entrails and feet of two animals about 200 yards from the nearby road.

Investigation showed that the animals had been shot in the head then the thieves cut off all four feet of each prior to dragging the carcasses to the nearby road and loading them into some kind of vehicle.

Fearful that persons unable to buy meat in butcher shops will attempt to steal cattle, stockmen are maintaining patrols on all large ranches here. License numbers of all suspicious cars are being taken and trespassers are ordered off ranch lands under penalty of arrest.—Southern Alameda County News.

STATE TREASURY STARTS NEW YEAR IN FINE SHAPE

State Controller Harry B. Riley announced today that California began 1943 with a general fund cash excess of $56,253,177.

The January 1st excess was the largest with which the State has ever begun a year, Controller Riley said.

With the majority of all major revenues except inheritance tax and motor vehicle license fees showing increased returns, California was better off by $83,525,147 on December 31st than it was a year earlier.

Revenue for the first six months of the fiscal year 1942-43 totaled $119,188,589, an increase of $10,555,947 over the corresponding period the preceding fiscal year.

Expenditures in the six months period ended last December 31st totaled $75,456,436, an increase of $3,975,681 over expenditures for the first six months of 1941-42.

A $3,743, 869 increase in expenditures for the State Guard was primarily responsible for the increased outlay.

STATE HUNTERS KILL LOTS OF GAME IN 1941

SAN FRANCISCO — Figures just released by the State Division of Fish and Game on the annual game kill in California show that a grand total of 5,673,282 head of game was taken during the hunting season of 1941. This was approximately five percent less than the take of 6,009,185 in 1940 .The kill by species for 1941 was: Quail, 1,208,788; Doves, 1,368,464; Ducks, 1, 579,651; Geese, 140,399; Pigeons, 123, 969; Pheasants, 245,666; Deer, 43, 493; Rabbits, 962,852; total 5,673,282.

While the 1941 take was not as great as in the years previous, the drop wasn't enough to be alarming The forty-seven per cent increase in the annual pheasant kill indicates an excellent condition of this species. Nearly two-thirds of the State kill is in the Sacramento Valley.

The take of game in California corresponds with the sale of licenses. Los Angeles hunters buy approximately eighteen per cent of the licenses sold throughout the State, and take just about the same percentage of game. San Francisco and Alameda County hunters buy ten per cent of the licenses and take that percentage of game. On the average, fifty-seven per cent of the game is taken by the residents of the county in which killed. However, this varies in accordance with the species. Two-thirds of the quail and doves are killed by residents, and less than half of the ducks, geese and pheasants. Few outside hunters take game in Los Angeles County. Ninety-eight per cent is taken by local hunters.

Pirates — Beware!

Listen, matey, when you see "The Black Swan," at the Niles Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday you'll run plumb into five of the briniest buccaneers who ever waylaid a windjammer on the high seas.

They're known in Hollywood as Charles McNaughton, Stuart Robertson, Frank Leigh, David Thursby and Charles Irvin. But seafaring souls know them—and fear them—as vicious veterans of such bloody campaigns as "Mutiny of the Bounty," "Treasure Island" and "The Sea Hawk."

They appear in support of Tyrone Power and Maureen O'Hara, stars of the Technicolor film based on Rafael Sabatini's adventure classics which feature Laird Cregar Thomas Mitchell, George Sanders, Anthony Quinn and George Zucco.

Vegetable and melon crops in California returned growers and shippers $153,423,000 in 1942, a gain of $41,456,000 over 1941.

Lettuce led all vegetables in California in 1942, in point of value, followed by tomatoes cantaloupes asparagus celery and carrots in that order.

Marketings and slaughter of hogs in 1943 and farmers' income from hogs will be far above those of any other year states the Department of Agriculture.

"TOO PROUD TO FIGHT"?

One still asks: is Latin American blood too good to be spilled in the cause of liberty?

Our dozen or more Allies of Central and South America are contributing some raw materials and foodstuffs to the war effort, but that is about all they are doing.

They look to us for manufactured goods and even hope Uncle Sam can help them with their own arms equipment, which is all in the cards.

But need our neighbors to the south look to US to do all their fighting for them, too? The "banana Republics" have a lot of fine fighting material in their hot-blooded young manhood . . why cannot tens of thousands of these adventure-seeking young men be sent to our Army camps to be turned into soldiers, thus earning some glory for their own Motherlands, while relieving our own manpower shortage?

Our draft boards are told to "get men" and their efforts to fill their frequent quotas are raising hob with our industries, farms and small businesses.

Seems like our Allies among the Central and South American countries, whom we are protecting and who want to share the final victory with us might meantime share some of this guntoting and gunfiring with US.

Our neighbors to the South are not suffering from any manpower shortages, so far as is known. Uncle Sam expects to pack the manufacturing load as the "arsenal of democracy" . . seems like they should contribute some man-power to the United Nations' war effort.

We are training British aviators here in the United States, Filipinos, and possibly nationals of other countries.

It would help a lot if Panama, Columbia, Venzuela and a dozen or more of our Southern Allies would inaugurate conscription and send us their young men to train, thus taking their part at the fighting fronts.

If Central and South America want to share in the future glory they should bear their part now in the present fighting.

Instead of importing undesirable farm labor from Mexico why not import desirable soldier material to help fight OUR WAR . . and leave our own younger farmers to work their own land: They know more about it than imported peons.

Official Washington please act! —W.W. . .

"SUPER-DUPERS"

A columnist with a flair for wit adopts the new boogie-woogie term "super-doopers" as an apt name to apply to the nazi higher-ups. Only he spells it "super-dupers" . . and that's very good.

A person who takes advantage of you dishonestly for his own benefit is acceptedly called a "dupe". A person who has been fleeced is said to have been "duped". Which is exactly what the damnazis do, or try to do, to everyone who falls beneath their dirty spell.

WANTED: SOME GOOD NEWS.

It's been about 60 days since anything startling has been announced from the many war "theatres". Our forces and the British are still holding in Africa, waiting for the mud to dry. .The Japs on the Aleutians, remember? Poor devils: they can't get any supplies now except by submarine. The Russians, of course, are still pressing back the nazis' east wall. Action in China and Burma is desultory. The Japs on Buna are most all "buna-ed" up.

Meantime we are pouring men and supplies into the South Pacific, North Africa, and not-so-merry England . . Perhaps a few months from now, when spring opens up, there will be new and exicting news from a new front, probably a thrust at the "soft under side" of Europe.

The Battle for Tunisia, when it starts, will be a little Verdun. We will win it, of course, having about six times as many forces there, including the British and French, as the nazis have, reinforcements notwithstanding. But that's Hitler's idea: to make a grandstand play, for his own vainglorious satisfaction, throwing away tens of thousands of German lives, knowing in advance his men cannot hold their position against the overwhelming odds.

But the Japs do the same thing: in order to "save face", which, to an intelligent American, does not mean anything. .We'd sooner save lives. "Save the life and you save all"!

—On Pay Day, Buy Bonds—

REVENGE IS SWEET . . and shattering.

A 500 RAF bomber raid on Berlin Saturday night dropping two and four ton block busters. Caught the nazis asleep and only one bomber lost.

Return engagement Sunday night, nazis not quite so sleepy, and 22 bombers lost. First bombing of Berlin in a year. So Mr. 5x5 Goering, mad as hops, returns three token raids over London, only about 50 planes per; damage not reported. Third raid stopped outside the city. Very weak returns, Fatty Goering, very weak. Where is your vaunted luftwaffe? Wafted out to thin? It's our turn now, with you and yours on the receiving end . . You have it coming to you, with interest. Bombing civilian populations was the Japs and the nazis idea in the first place. We'll finish it for you.

Tallevents—Adolph is requiring one million Parisians to move out of Paris (where to?) to provide quarters for a million bombed out German civilians from Cologne, Emden, Dusseldorf, and the Lord knows where else.

As your boss has said, the nazis come first, and to h—— with other people. This is a sweet tenet of the "new order" which very soon is going to be put enentirely" out of order".

Revenge is sweet, Adolph, after three years of Hun brutality, . . and your never-too-good temper is sure going to get lots of exercise now . . How are your boys doing in Russia — freezing to death? And in Tunisia? And the folks who used to have homes in your bombed cities? And in Yugoslavia?

Pretty-Boy Goering's boast that German cities would only be bombed over his dead body was just an idle boast. Georing's body is still very much alive, and very fat; whereas a lot of innocent Germans' bodies are now very dead — and anything but fat.

It is now the United Nations pleasure and privilege to throw your idle boasts back in your chattering teeth and make you, all and sundry, eat your own words.

. . . . Nice pickin's Adolph? From the bodies of your dead soldiers and civilians? You and your buzzards can now gorge yourselves on the carrion your foul acts have created.

Happy landings, block-busters!

And are we Americans dyed in the wool? Sign under a flag for sale in a Southern store: "Note: these colors do not run."! Japanese please notice,

PULLING IN THEIR NECKS

Japan, unknown in world affairs until 1900, and entirely unkown even to explorers before 1850, tells the world she is a first rate power — and sets about on an era of world conquest.

Just to prove she is less than 1|15th. the size of this colusses everyone knows as the U.S.A. our 1943 budget of 109 billion dollars was tossed on to the lap of congress and the people last week, and we are going right ahead with it.

Japan, trying to be big, announces a budget for their war years of 1943 — the most important (and probably disappointing) year of their modern existence, of but a puny seven billion dollars, only twice the size of Canada's and smaller even than beaten Italy's.

So what? So for every battleship or airplane or gun Japan can build and pay for, we can build and pay for 15½. Japan's present ratio of losses in men, ships and airplanes is so much greater than our own . . we are sinking Jap ships every day in the South Pacific, while the skibbies are sinking but few of ours now; with her power of replacement but seven percent of our own . , can there be any other answer to this curren American-Japanese War, (America is the only nation ow fighting the Japs abroad, except of course the Chinese in China) other than complete extinction and conquest of the Japs, long and bloody as the road may be?

The figures tell the story of Japan's littleness of capital, notwithstanding the strutting vainglory of her war leaders, who were always too big for their britches and need only a good, sound, slapping-down to make them realize their own insignificanse in the affairs of really great nations.

—On Pay Day, Buy Bonds—

Say the girls back home to their men overseas:
"Your arms our defense,
"Our arms your recompense."

And there's the whole psychology of war summed up in two lines!

AUTO TROUBLE?

If you're an auto-owner you're as acutely auto-conscious this week as you have ever been in your life. You're trying to make your first gas tickets last until —or use them before—Friday when the new coupons become valid. You're trying to get your tires inspected. If you've already had them looked over, you may have to get your wheels aligned or go through some other chore and expense before your inspector will sign your papers. .You're worrying about sending the Department of Motor Vehicles your white slip and a money order for your 1943 registration before Feb. 4.

But it's probably a heck of a lot less trouble than being in the engine room of an ammunition freighter or on a tank in the African desert. And we doubt if the trouble out-weighs the real value of the car for most folks. America today is built of individual transportation and we suffer acutely without it.

Take this man named Calendar — bet he has a new date every day!

An OPA Official Gainsays The President

(and that isn't healthy)

Way back in the beginning of this war President Roosevelt approved a list of 21 industry and service groups the functioning of which the government held indispensible to the maintenance of American internal economy.

High up on the list, of course, was communications, which included telephone, telegraph, newspapers and radio.

A month ago some OPA big-wig calmly announced that the publication of newspapers was NOT necessary to the war effort . . which made a lot of publishers, big and small, put their tongues in their cheeks to keep from laffing.

Because, when the OPA wants to notify the public about point rationing, when to apply for your No. 2 ration book, the extension of tire inspection deadlines and similar vital public information, every newspaper large or small, is bombarded with official releases from the self-same OPA!

How else can the OPA and other hard-working government bureaus reach the public except via newspapers and radio? The radio carries the flash and the newspapers carry the details: columns of them.

Perhaps the OPA should write personal letters to 140 million people?

When the recruiting services want men and women, when the U. S. civil service wants typists; when the Postoffice Department makes a new ruling restricting the sending of papers overseas, who spreads the word to the public?

The newspapers, of course. You can get a flash over your news broadcast, but the fresh details don't stick in your mind until you see these details IN PRINT. You cant reflect while you are listening to a newscast. The next subject wipes from your mind the matter you have just heard and wish to digest. You get your chance to ponder and digest new rulings which affect you personally, only when you see them in print.

The OPA official who ruled newspapers were NOT essential to the war effort, thus contradicting President Roosevelt's ruling of more than a year ago, will feel cheaper and cheaper as time goes on. Just suppose all Coast newspapers, big and little, returned the frequent publicity releases, (all of public interest, of course) to the issuing offices of OPA with the trite reminder: "Your office rules that newspapers are not necessary to the war effort"! Woundn't lotsa somebodies faces be red??

COSTS MONEY TO DUMP TRASH

A family of newcomers to Niles, no doubt from out- of-state made the mistake of dumping tin cans and other trash from a moving vehicle recently on the Hotel Belvoir property right beside State Highway 17. A little examination of the trash revealed the names of the miscreasts who were haled into justice court at Niles and were notified of their mistke to the tune of a $25 cash fine.

This is not a very nice reception to give new- comers, yet newcomers are attracted to our state by the sightliness of our countryside and the fine condition of our paved highways, among other advantages. Our highways can only be kept sightly by prohibiting the dumping of trash.

It is cheaper to call the East Bay Garbage company, whose advertisement always appears on page seven of each issue of this newspaper, and pay them 50c or $1 to remove your trash, rather than to offend public taste and have to pay a stiff fine therefor.

WHAT TO DO WITH TIN CANS?

What to do with cleaned and flattened tin cans in Washington Township? Thus far this office has no information. Regular collections are being made in the larger cities, but no arrangements have yet been made for collections in the rural districts.

My suggestion to willing householders is to go ahead and fill boxes with clean, flat tin cans and let them accumulate. At some future date, when the call comes, you will be ready with your contributions.

Apparently, national demand for tin and the steel in tin cans is being met by collections from the larger cities.

Official Tire Inspectors for Washington Township Announced

New Deadlines for "A", "B", & "C" Book Holders Are Advanced to Escape Rush

"The regulations require that 'A' book holders have their tires inspected every 6 months after the first inspection, "B" holders once in 4 months, and "C" and "T" drivers, once every 3 months.

"This periodical inspection routine was created for the express purpose of preserving the nation's remaining tire carcasses. . . It is important, when a tire wears down to the point where the carcass is endangered, that the motorist be given a certificate for a recapping job or replacement.

"The government has authorized tire inspectors to make a nominal charge of 25 cents per car where tire serial numbers are on outside of tires, plus a charge of 50 cents each where it is necessary to dismount the tire. Higher rates prevail for heavy truck tires."

Ration Book Must Be Turned in at Car Sale

At this time of the year when transfers of ownership of automobiles are being recorded, motorists are urged by the National Automobile Club to comply with the ruling of the Office of Price Administration with regard to their gasoline ration books. The ruling is that upon change of ownership of a vehicle the ration book issued for that vehicle shall expire and all unused coupons and books issued therefor shall, within five days after such change, be surrendered to the issuing Board, by the person to whom such ration was issued. The transferee, or purchaser, should apply for a ration in his own name.
